

Name _____

Net Play in Badminton: Strategies for Dominance

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Explain the importance of a soft touch in net play. How does a soft grip on the racket enhance control over net shots?
2. Discuss the role of deception in net play. Provide examples of how you can deceive your opponent with your shots and movements at the net.
3. Imagine you're in a high-stakes badminton match, and your opponent is known for their strong net play. How would you counter their dominance at the net and gain an advantage?
4. In your opinion, what are the key qualities that make a player exceptional at net play in badminton? How do these qualities contribute to their overall success on the court?

