

Name _____

New Nation

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. If you were a leader in the new United States, what would you have done to help fix the economy?
2. Why do you think it was difficult for the new country to create a strong government after the war?
3. How do you think life changed for ordinary people after America became independent?
4. What do you think were the most important challenges the U.S. faced right after the war, and why?

