

Name _____

New Nation

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. A leader might try to create new trade agreements, collect taxes, or build more industries to help the economy grow.
2. It was difficult because the states had different ideas about government, and people didn't trust a strong national government after fighting Britain.
3. Life changed because people had more freedom, but they also faced new struggles like economic problems and government changes.
4. The most important challenges included building a government, fixing the economy, and gaining respect from other countries, because these were necessary for survival as an independent nation.

