

Name _____

Florence Nightingale: A Light in the Darkness

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where was Florence Nightingale born?

- a) London, England
- b) Paris, France
- c) Florence, Italy
- d) Athens, Greece

2. What profession did Florence Nightingale pursue, despite it being considered unsuitable for women of her class?

- a) Teaching
- b) Nursing
- c) Law
- d) Engineering

3. In which war did Florence Nightingale witness the deplorable conditions of military hospitals and begin her nursing efforts?

- a) American Civil War
- b) Crimean War
- c) World War I
- d) Napoleonic Wars

4. Why was Florence Nightingale known as "The Lady with the Lamp" during her time in the Crimea?

- a) She was an expert in lamp-making.
- b) She was known for her elaborate lamp collection.
- c) She would often make rounds at night, tending to the wounded by the light of her lamp.
- d) She used lamps as a symbol of her wealth.

5. How did Florence Nightingale contribute to healthcare reform upon her return to England?

- a) She became a medical doctor.
- b) She used data and statistics to advocate for better sanitation practices and hospital design improvements.
- c) She opened a chain of hospitals.
- d) She retired from nursing and lived a quiet life.

