

Name _____

Amphibians of North America: Exploring the Diverse Species in Your Backyard

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is a common amphibian found in North America known for its deep, resonant calls?
 - a) American bullfrog
 - b) American toad
 - c) Eastern newt
 - d) Spotted salamander

2. Which amphibian has a unique life cycle that includes three distinct stages?
 - a) American bullfrog
 - b) Eastern newt
 - c) Spotted salamander
 - d) Wood frog

3. What is a characteristic feature of the American toad?
 - a) Bright orange or red coloration
 - b) Nocturnal behavior
 - c) Ability to survive freezing temperatures
 - d) Warty skin

4. Where are spotted salamanders primarily found?
 - a) Suburban gardens
 - b) Western North America
 - c) Eastern North America
 - d) South America

5. How do wood frogs survive freezing temperatures?
 - a) By hibernating
 - b) By producing natural antifreeze
 - c) By migrating to warmer climates
 - d) By burrowing underground

