

Name _____

Exploring the Majestic Norwegian Fjords

Short Answer Key

1. The author's first impression of the Norwegian Fjords was amazement at the sheer beauty that surrounded them.
2. The author visited the famous viewpoint at Dalsnibba in Geirangerfjord. The experience was like standing on the edge of a mountain and gazing down at the fjord below.
3. The village of Flam is located at the end of Aurlandsfjord. The author took a scenic ride on the Flam Railway through lush valleys and past gushing rivers.
4. Bryggen Wharf in Bergen is significant for its historic wooden houses and trading past. The author recommended trying some freshly caught seafood.
5. The author witnessed the Northern Lights in Tromsø, and it made them feel awe-inspired and amazed by the colorful lights dancing across the sky.

