

Name _____

Nuclear Threat

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How does the story "Nuclear Threat" reflect the real-world concerns and consequences associated with the proliferation of nuclear weapons?
2. In your opinion, what qualities and skills are essential for the members of the intelligence team to successfully complete their mission?
3. Discuss the role of time as a central element in the story's plot. How does the ticking clock create suspense and urgency in the narrative?
4. What do you think might have happened if the intelligence team had failed to locate and disarm the nuclear weapon? How would that have affected the world in the story?

