

Name _____

Unveiling the Playbook: Offensive Positions in American Football

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Compare and contrast the roles of a running back and a wide receiver on the offensive team. How are their responsibilities similar, and how do they differ?
2. Imagine you are a quarterback in a critical game situation. Describe the factors you would consider when choosing a play and making a pass.
3. Discuss the challenges and importance of effective communication among offensive players, especially during fast-paced game situations.
4. How can offensive linemen adapt to different defensive strategies used by the opposing team to maintain a strong offense?

