

Name _____

Ode to Online Communities

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Can you share your own experiences or thoughts about being part of an online community and how it has impacted your life?
2. How do you think online communities have changed the way people connect and form friendships in today's world?
3. Why do you think the poet emphasizes the phrase "it's never too late" when talking about online bonds?
4. What role do common interests and passions play in building strong connections within online communities, in your opinion?

