

Name _____

Opposing Voices

Short Answer Key

1. The Anti-Federalists were afraid that a strong government would take away people's rights and freedoms.
2. The Anti-Federalist Papers were essays arguing against the Constitution.
3. The Anti-Federalists believed the Constitution needed a Bill of Rights.
4. One Anti-Federalist leader was Patrick Henry, George Mason, or Samuel Adams.
5. The Bill of Rights was added to the Constitution in 1791.

