

Name _____

Opposites Collide

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does the Cat behave when he arrives?
 - a) He follows all the rules carefully.
 - b) He brings fun and chaos into the house.
 - c) He listens to the Fish's warnings.
 - d) He helps the siblings do their chores.

2. What does the Fish try to do throughout the story?
 - a) Encourage the Cat's fun and games.
 - b) Join in on the chaos.
 - c) Help Thing 1 and Thing 2 clean up the mess.
 - d) Remind the siblings of their mother's rules.

3. How does the Fish contrast with the Cat?
 - a) The Fish is cautious, while the Cat is playful and wild.
 - b) The Fish is silly, while the Cat is serious and responsible.
 - c) The Fish is loud, while the Cat is quiet and calm.
 - d) The Fish creates chaos, while the Cat cleans up.

4. What does the contrast between the Cat and the Fish create in the story?
 - a) A sense of calm and relaxation.
 - b) Tension and excitement.
 - c) Confusion about the story's lesson.
 - d) A reason for the Cat to leave quickly.

5. How is the story resolved?
 - a) The siblings convince the Cat to leave, and they clean the house themselves.
 - b) The Fish decides to help the Cat clean up the mess.
 - c) The Cat uses a machine to clean the mess before the mother comes home.
 - d) The mother returns early and stops the Cat's antics.

