

Name _____

Opposites of Charlie

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does it mean for a character to be a foil?
 - a) A character who disappears from the story
 - b) A character who has similar traits to the main character
 - c) A character who contrasts with another character to highlight differences
 - d) A character who helps the main character solve a problem

2. How does Augustus Gloop serve as a foil to Charlie?
 - a) Augustus is greedy, while Charlie is humble and grateful
 - b) Augustus is polite, while Charlie is rude
 - c) Augustus hates chocolate, while Charlie loves it
 - d) Augustus follows rules, while Charlie breaks them

3. What is Veruca Salt's biggest flaw?
 - a) She is kind and generous
 - b) She is too competitive
 - c) She is too shy to speak up
 - d) She is spoiled and demands everything she wants

4. Why does Violet Beauregarde turn into a blueberry?
 - a) She falls into a juice river
 - b) She chews experimental gum even after being warned
 - c) She demands to try a new candy before anyone else
 - d) She eats too much chocolate

5. What lesson do the four misbehaving children teach?
 - a) That being spoiled, greedy, competitive, or rude leads to trouble
 - b) That Charlie is not as special as he seems
 - c) That all children should be exactly the same
 - d) That breaking rules always leads to success

