

Name _____

Respect for Others

Open-Ended Questions Answer Key

1. A classmate helped me when I dropped my books in the hallway. It made me feel happy and cared for.
2. Example Answer: Without respect, people might argue more, feel hurt, and it would be harder to make friends.
3. Example Answer: It helps us understand each other and shows that we value everyone, no matter how they are different.
4. Example Answer: By setting an example, like saying kind things and helping others, people might want to do the same.

