

Name _____

Otis Redding: The King of Soul

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where was Otis Redding born?

- a) Memphis, Tennessee
- b) Chicago, Illinois
- c) Dawson, Georgia
- d) New Orleans, Louisiana

2. How did Otis Redding's early exposure to music influence his singing style?

- a) He learned to play multiple musical instruments.
- b) He became a gospel choir conductor.
- c) It had no impact on his singing style.
- d) He developed a powerful and emotive singing style.

3. Which record label did Otis Redding sign with, leading to his breakthrough in the music industry?

- a) Motown Records
- b) Atlantic Records
- c) Stax Records
- d) Columbia Records

4. What is one characteristic of Otis Redding's music that made it stand out?

- a) It featured complex instrumental arrangements.
- b) It was known for its use of electronic synthesizers.
- c) His music was filled with raw emotion and depth in his voice.
- d) His songs were exclusively in Spanish.

5. How did Otis Redding gain recognition in the pop music scene in the mid-1960s?

- a) By performing at Woodstock.
- b) By collaborating with The Beatles.
- c) By releasing a Christmas album.
- d) By singing cover songs like "Satisfaction."

