

Name _____

Overworked Colors

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why was Red Crayon upset?
  - A) It was never used.
  - B) It was always used and never got a break.
  - C) Duncan had lost it.
  - D) It was broken in half.

2. What did Blue Crayon complain about?
  - A) It was used too much and was getting too short.
  - B) It was only used for outlining.
  - C) Duncan didn't like using it.
  - D) It had to share a job with Yellow Crayon.

3. What was Beige Crayon's main complaint?
  - A) It was used for too many things.
  - B) It was only used for boring things like wheat and sand.
  - C) Duncan used it too much for tree trunks.
  - D) It was broken and couldn't be used.

4. How did Duncan solve the crayons' problems?
  - A) He threw away the crayons and bought new ones.
  - B) He decided to stop coloring.
  - C) He used every crayon in new and creative ways.
  - D) He let the crayons argue until they solved their problems.

5. What is the main lesson Duncan learned from his crayons?
  - A) Some colors are better than others.
  - B) Drawing is not fun when crayons complain.
  - C) Crayons should only be used for their traditional colors.
  - D) It's important to appreciate and value everyone's contributions.

