

Name _____

A Floating Palace

Short-Answer Answer Key

1. It was called the "Ship of Dreams" because it was luxurious and promised a bright future for its passengers.
2. The Titanic had 16 watertight compartments that were supposed to keep it afloat.
3. First-class passengers enjoyed grand dining rooms, a swimming pool, and richly decorated rooms.
4. After hitting the iceberg, the ship began to flood and sank within a few hours.
5. The Titanic's story teaches us lessons about safety and the limits of technology, and it remains a symbol of hope and courage.

