

Name _____

Unveiling the Wonders of Ancient Palestinian Art: From Mosaics to the Melodies of Fairouz

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which artistic form is known for using colored stones, glass, and ceramic tiles to create intricate designs in ancient Palestine?

- a) Pottery
- b) Textiles
- c) Calligraphy
- d) Mosaics

2. What is one distinctive feature of ancient Palestinian pottery?

- a) Geometric patterns
- b) Floral designs
- c) Minimalist style
- d) Modern art influences

3. What role did embroidery play in traditional Palestinian culture?

- a) Wall decoration
- b) Floor covering
- c) Clothing adornment
- d) Musical instrument crafting

4. Who is Fairouz, and why is she celebrated in Palestinian culture?

- a) An ancient Palestinian queen known for her leadership
- b) A famous Palestinian poet known for her epic poems
- c) A Lebanese singer known for her enchanting voice and timeless music
- d) A Palestinian calligrapher known for her artistic scripts

5. Which art form is associated with beautiful writing and often graced the walls of mosques and religious texts in Palestine?

- a) Mosaics
- b) Pottery
- c) Textiles
- d) Calligraphy

