

Name _____

The Amazing Pancreas: A Dual-Purpose Organ

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the pancreas?
 - A) A small bone behind the stomach.
 - B) A dual-purpose organ with endocrine and exocrine functions.
 - C) A large muscle in the leg.
 - D) A type of fruit.

2. What does the pancreas produce to aid in digestion?
 - A) Hormones
 - B) Enzymes
 - C) Blood
 - D) Oxygen

3. Which hormone helps cells absorb glucose from the bloodstream?
 - A) Insulin
 - B) Glucagon
 - C) Melatonin
 - D) Estrogen

4. What happens if the pancreas doesn't produce enough insulin?
 - A) Blood sugar levels become too high.
 - B) Blood sugar levels drop too low.
 - C) Nothing changes.
 - D) It leads to obesity.

5. Why is understanding the pancreas important?
 - A) It helps regulate blood sugar levels.
 - B) It aids in digestion.
 - C) It can prevent health problems.
 - D) All of the above.

