

Name _____

The Sneaky Strategies of Parasitic Invasion

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do parasites like fleas and ticks infect their hosts?
 - A) By laying eggs in the environment
 - B) Through direct contact
 - C) By flying from host to host
 - D) By swimming in water

2. What is a vector?
 - A) An organism that transmits parasites between hosts
 - B) A type of parasite
 - C) A method of ingesting parasites
 - D) A type of food contaminated with parasites

3. How can humans become infected with tapeworms?
 - A) By inhaling contaminated air
 - B) By consuming contaminated water
 - C) By consuming raw or undercooked meat
 - D) By touching infected animals

4. What is one way parasites manipulate their hosts?
 - A) By making them larger
 - B) By altering their behavior
 - C) By increasing their lifespan
 - D) By changing their appearance

5. How does the parasite that causes Lyme disease infect humans?
 - A) Through contaminated food
 - B) Through direct contact with infected animals
 - C) Through the bite of infected ticks
 - D) Through airborne transmission

