

Name _____

The Significance of Party Platforms in Elections

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary purpose of a party platform in an election?
  - a) To promote party leaders
  - b) To inform voters about the party's beliefs and positions
  - c) To outline campaign strategies
  - d) To select primary candidates

2. Who typically looks to the party platform for policy guidance during an election?
  - a) Voters
  - b) Independent candidates
  - c) Candidates running under a party's banner
  - d) Election observers

3. How can party platforms help maintain unity within a political party?
  - a) By promoting internal divisions
  - b) By offering different policy positions for each candidate
  - c) By providing a common set of principles and goals
  - d) By excluding certain party members

4. What does it mean when a party's platform reflects a range of positions on various issues?
  - a) The platform is unclear and confusing.
  - b) The platform lacks substance.
  - c) The platform acknowledges political negotiations and compromise.
  - d) The platform is biased.

5. Why is it important for elected officials to be accountable based on their party's platform?
  - a) To prevent them from seeking re-election
  - b) To ensure that they uphold the party's principles and goals
  - c) To encourage them to switch parties
  - d) To discourage them from taking a stand on issues

