

Name _____

Passion Unleashed: My Love for the Dance

Short Answer Key

1. The poem describes the speaker's relationship with dance as a passionate and fulfilling one.
2. Students can provide examples of hobbies or passions that bring them joy and fulfillment, such as playing a musical instrument, painting, or playing a sport.
3. The poem conveys that dance is a form of art by describing the stage as a canvas and the speaker's body as the brush used to create a visual and emotional masterpiece.
4. The line signifies that the stage provides a creative space for the speaker to express themselves through dance.
5. The poem conveys the message that pursuing one's passion, like dance, brings joy, fulfillment, and completeness to life.

