Paws and Friends

In a cozy corner of the garden, three fluffy kittens named Whiskers, Mittens, and Paws were having a silly race. Whiskers thought he could run the fastest, but he tripped over his own whiskers and did a somersault.

Mittens tried to leap like a superhero but ended up in a pile of leaves. Paws, on the other hand, just rolled on the grass, giggling. They may not have been fast, but they sure knew how to have fun!
