

Name _____

Paws Down, Dogs Make the Best Pets!

Short Answer Key

1. The author believes that dogs are better pets than cats because of their loyalty, affection, protectiveness, love for outdoor activities, emotional support, and the wide variety of breeds to choose from.
2. Dogs show their loyalty and affection to their owners by wagging their tails, being excited to see their owners, cuddling, and being by their owners' sides.
3. Dogs enjoy activities such as hiking, playing fetch, and going for walks in the park.
4. Dogs can provide emotional support by offering a calming presence and brightening their owners' moods, making them ideal therapy animals for people dealing with emotional challenges.
5. Dogs have an advantage over cats in terms of variety because there is a wide range of dog breeds, each with its unique personality and traits.

