

Name _____

Paws Down, Dogs Make the Best Pets!

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Dogs actively seek opportunities to connect with their owners by wagging their tails, cuddling, playing, and following their owners around the house.
2. Dogs can be protective of their owners by barking at strangers, standing guard, and even intervening if they sense danger or a threat.
3. The author believes that dogs are better companions for outdoor activities because they have boundless energy, enthusiasm, and a love for outdoor adventures like hiking and playing outdoor games.
4. Some different breeds of dogs mentioned in the article include small lap dogs, playful retrievers, and loyal German Shepherds. These breeds differ in size, personalities, and temperaments, providing a variety of options for potential dog owners.

