

Name _____

The Influence of Peer Pressure on Decision-Making

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is peer pressure?
 - a) Pressure from teachers
 - b) Influence from friends or peers to behave a certain way
 - c) Pressure to complete homework
 - d) Influence from parents to do chores

2. How can peer pressure be both positive and negative?
 - a) It's always negative
 - b) It encourages good choices and risky decisions
 - c) It only affects adults
 - d) It only affects schoolwork

3. Why is peer pressure powerful?
 - a) Because it has no effect on decision-making
 - b) Because we value our friends' opinions and want to fit in
 - c) Because it only happens in school
 - d) Because it only happens online

4. What is one way to deal with peer pressure?
 - a) Always go along with your friends' decisions
 - b) Never say "no" to anything
 - c) Practice assertiveness and politely decline if you're not comfortable
 - d) Avoid making friends

5. Who can you talk to if you're facing difficult peer pressure situations?
 - a) Your friends
 - b) A trusted adult like a parent or teacher
 - c) Strangers on the internet
 - d) Nobody, you should handle it on your own

