

Name _____

Perfect or Flawed?

Short Answer Key

1. At first, Jonas thought his community was perfect, but after receiving memories, he realized that it lacked emotions, choices, and true happiness.
2. The Giver's memories showed Jonas what life was like before sameness, helping him understand both joy and pain.
3. The community believed that emotions caused problems like jealousy, anger, and fear, so they removed them to create a peaceful society.
4. Jonas realizes that a true utopia allows people to make choices, experience emotions, and live freely.
5. Jonas decided to leave because he wanted to live in a world where people could feel emotions, experience love, and make their own decisions.

