

Name _____

Persuading the People

Short Answer Key

1. The goal of the Federalist Papers was to convince people to support the Constitution.
2. One of the authors was Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, or John Jay.
3. The Anti-Federalists feared that a strong government would take away people's rights.
4. The three branches are Executive, Legislative, and Judicial.
5. The compromise was that the Bill of Rights was added to protect individual freedoms.

