

Name _____

Warding Off Woes: Battling Pests and Diseases in Your Herb Garden

Short Answer Key

1. One common pest that affects herb plants is aphids.
2. To prevent powdery mildew on herb plants, provide good air circulation.
3. A natural predator of aphids is ladybugs.
4. To control spider mite infestations on herb plants, apply insecticidal soap.
5. A recommended method for deterring slugs and snails from herb plants is creating barriers with copper tape.

