

Name _____

Picture-Perfect: Elevating Your Photo Composition and Framing

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the rule of thirds in photography?
 - a) Dividing a photo into four equal parts
 - b) Placing the most important elements at the center of the frame
 - c) Dividing a photo into nine equal parts and placing key elements along lines or intersections
 - d) Capturing images without any divisions or guidelines

2. How can leading lines enhance a photograph?
 - a) By making the image appear cluttered
 - b) By guiding the viewer's eye to a specific point in the photo
 - c) By making the image look chaotic
 - d) By adding unnecessary complexity to the composition

3. What is the purpose of framing in photography?
 - a) To crop the photo
 - b) To add a border around the image
 - c) To draw attention to the main subject and add depth
 - d) To make the photo look smaller

4. How can you achieve balance in a photograph?
 - a) By creating a cluttered background
 - b) By using only symmetry in your composition
 - c) By distributing visual weight unevenly
 - d) By using symmetry or asymmetry to distribute visual weight evenly

5. What is the rule of space in photography?
 - a) Leaving extra space behind the subject
 - b) Leaving extra space in front of a subject's direction of movement
 - c) Centering the subject in the frame
 - d) Cropping the subject tightly to the edges of the frame

