

Name _____

Pigeon's Next Plan

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why is the ending of the book funny?
 - a) The pigeon finally learns his lesson.
 - b) The pigeon immediately forgets about the bus and starts dreaming about a truck.
 - c) The pigeon gets mad and flies away.
 - d) The bus driver lets the pigeon drive after all.

2. How does the pigeon's mood change at the end?
 - a) He stays sad and walks away.
 - b) He goes from excited to sleepy.
 - c) He quickly moves from feeling disappointed to hopeful again.
 - d) He finally accepts that birds can't drive.

3. What does the ending suggest about the pigeon's personality?
 - a) He gives up easily.
 - b) He is always looking for a new challenge.
 - c) He is afraid to try new things.
 - d) He learns from his mistakes.

4. Why might the author have ended the book with the pigeon seeing a truck?
 - a) To show that the pigeon will try again, creating a funny and predictable pattern.
 - b) To make the reader feel bad for the pigeon.
 - c) To prove that pigeons can drive large vehicles.
 - d) To end the story on a sad note.

5. How does the picture of the pigeon at the end make the scene funnier?
 - a) There are no pictures on the last page.
 - b) The picture shows him driving a truck.
 - c) The pigeon looks exactly the same as before.
 - d) His eyes and body language show how quickly he changes emotions.

