

Name _____

The Great Pillow Fight Conspiracy

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. The annual event in Pillowville is the Great Pillow Fight, which takes place on the first Saturday of April. It is a tradition that brings the entire town together, where people armed with soft pillows engage in epic pillow battles. It is significant to the residents because it is a fun and cherished tradition that brings joy and chaos to their lives.
2. The Pillow Pranksters secretly replaced the stuffing in all the pillows with feathers and whipped cream. They also recruited local chickens to make the feathers extra fluffy.
3. The townspeople reacted with laughter and delight when they saw feathers and whipped cream flying during the pillow fight. They had a great time despite the unexpected chaos.
4. The future for Tommy and his gang of Pillow Pranksters likely involves more epic pranks and adventures as they continue to seek excitement and mischief in Pillowville.

