Name _____

Greening Our World: The Importance of Planting More Trees

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Share a personal experience or story about a time when you realized the importance of trees in your daily life or in your community.

2. Reflect on the impact of deforestation on the environment and discuss why it's crucial to combat it by planting more trees.

3. Describe a local initiative or project that aims to plant more trees in your area, and explain how it benefits the community and the environment.

4. In your opinion, what are some practical steps individuals, schools, or communities can take to promote tree planting and conservation?

© ReadingDuck.com