

Name _____

The Republic by Plato

Short Answer

1. What are some of the central ideas about justice in "The Republic," and how do they relate to the individual and the state?
2. Describe Plato's vision of the ideal state and the role of philosopher-kings in it.
3. How does Plato view the power of education in shaping individuals and society, and what criticisms does he have regarding certain art forms?
4. Explain the allegory of the cave and its significance in the context of the dialogue.
5. What enduring influence has "The Republic" had on philosophy and political theory?

