

Name _____

Play-Doh: Molding Creativity through the Ages

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How did Play-Doh originate before it became a toy?
  - a) It was created as a children's toy.
  - b) It was used as a cleaning product for walls.
  - c) It was initially a type of modeling clay.
  - d) It was made as an edible dough.

2. When did Play-Doh first make its debut as a modeling clay for children?
  - a) 1950
  - b) 1952
  - c) 1956
  - d) 1960

3. What initially made Play-Doh a parent-approved choice for creative play?
  - a) Its unique scent
  - b) Its vibrant colors
  - c) Its non-toxic and non-staining properties
  - d) Its affordability

4. What sensory memory is associated with Play-Doh for many who grew up with it?
  - a) The taste of salt
  - b) The sound of molding
  - c) The feel of softness
  - d) The scent of nostalgia

5. How has Play-Doh adapted to the modern era?
  - a) By introducing virtual reality playsets
  - b) By offering themed kits and keeping up with pop culture trends
  - c) By discontinuing its production
  - d) By creating Play-Doh books

