Play Time

In a colorful playground, three best friends named Lucy, Timmy, and Mia loved to play together. They decided to build a funny-shaped sandcastle with towers and moats.

But when they tried to put a flag on top, it kept falling.

They laughed and tried again, but it fell once more. Then, they put a banana on top instead, and their sandcastle became the silliest one in the whole playground! They learned that sometimes, silly mistakes can make the best memories.
