

Name _____

The Time-Travelling Pocket Watch

Short Answer Key

1. (Answer may vary) One of Lily's time-traveling adventures was when she closed her eyes and whispered, "Ancient Egypt." When she opened her eyes, she found herself standing near the Great Pyramid of Giza, surrounded by bustling markets and towering monuments. She experienced the sights and sounds of ancient Egypt.
2. Lily decided to use the pocket watch to travel back to the moment when she first found it in the attic because she realized that her time-traveling adventures had altered Oakridge's history and environment. She wanted to make amends and preserve the town's heritage.
3. Lily ensured that the history of Oakridge remained intact by planting acorns from the ancient oaks. She also used the pocket watch sparingly to protect and preserve the town's past. She took responsibility for the town's environment and its history.
4. Lily learned that the true magic of the pocket watch lay in her responsibility to safeguard the history and environment of Oakridge. She made amends for the changes in Oakridge's history and ensured that the oak trees thrived. As a result, Oakridge remained a place where history and nature coexisted harmoniously.
5. The pocket watch changed the landscape and history of Oakridge by initially altering its natural and historical elements through Lily's time-traveling adventures, but ultimately, it helped preserve the town's heritage and natural beauty when she used it to restore and protect its past.

