

Name _____

NGOs as Changemakers: Advocating for Policy Changes

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. In your opinion, which advocacy strategy employed by NGOs do you believe is the most effective, and why? Provide reasons to support your choice.
2. Imagine you are part of an NGO's advocacy team. Describe the steps you would take to engage with international organizations and advocate for global policies on an issue you are passionate about.
3. Research and identify a real-life example of an NGO's successful advocacy campaign. Describe the issue, the strategies employed by the NGO, and the impact of their efforts on policy changes or decision-making.
4. Discuss the potential challenges that NGOs may face when advocating for policy changes and influencing decision-making at the international level.

