

Name _____

Jackson Pollock: The Dance of Drip Painting

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where was Jackson Pollock born?

- a) New York City, USA
- b) Paris, France
- c) Cody, Wyoming, USA
- d) London, England

2. What artistic technique is Jackson Pollock known for?

- a) Sculpting
- b) Drip painting
- c) Mosaic
- d) Pointillism

3. How did Jackson Pollock create his drip paintings?

- a) By using traditional brushwork
- b) By pouring and dripping paint onto canvases from above
- c) By carving shapes into wood
- d) By creating collages

4. What is the title of one of Jackson Pollock's famous drip paintings mentioned in the passage?

- a) Starry Night
- b) The Persistence of Memory
- c) Autumn Rhythm (Number 30)
- d) Girl with a Pearl Earring

5. How did Jackson Pollock view his paintings, and what did he refer to them as?

- a) As a way to make a profit; he called them commodities.
- b) As a way to reveal his inner emotions; he referred to them as the "unconscious."
- c) As a means of creating detailed representations; he called them "realistic."
- d) As a form of traditional art; he called them "classical."

