

Name _____

Jackson Pollock: The Dance of Drip Painting

Open Ended Response Questions

1. Jackson Pollock believed in expressing his inner emotions through his art. Can you provide examples from his paintings, such as "Autumn Rhythm (Number 30)," that support this belief? Explain your interpretation.
2. Imagine you are standing in front of "Autumn Rhythm (Number 30)." Describe your emotional response to the painting and how the technique of drip painting contributes to those feelings.
3. Jackson Pollock's art challenged traditional notions of painting and interpretation. How do you think his work influenced later generations of artists and the way people approach abstract art today?
4. Why do you think Jackson Pollock's art continues to be admired and studied despite the controversies and criticism it initially faced?

