

Name _____

Pennsylvania's Diverse Population

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Pennsylvania's early settlers included English Quakers, Dutch, Swedes, and _____.
 - A) French
 - B) Italians
 - C) Germans
 - D) Spanish

2. The Pennsylvania Dutch community is known for its distinctive:
 - A) Barns
 - B) Hex signs
 - C) Cuisine
 - D) All of the above

3. Which communities are known for their simple way of life and traditional values in Pennsylvania?
 - A) Irish and Scottish
 - B) Amish and Mennonite
 - C) Italian and Greek
 - D) Chinese and Indian

4. What distinguishes cities like Philadelphia and Pittsburgh in terms of their populations?
 - A) They have the largest Amish communities.
 - B) They are known for their urban diversity.
 - C) They are predominantly English-speaking.
 - D) They have a strong German cultural influence.

5. How has the influx of talent from universities and research institutions benefited Pennsylvania?
 - A) It has led to a decline in urban diversity.
 - B) It has made the state less innovative.
 - C) It has contributed to innovation and technology.
 - D) It has resulted in a loss of traditional values.

