Name _____

Exploring Ecology: Understanding Populations and Communities

Short Answer

1. What is the main difference between a population and a community?

2. Provide an example of a population and a community in nature.

3. What factors do ecologists study to understand the dynamics of populations?

4. Describe the composition of a community within an ecosystem.

5. How do interactions within a community contribute to ecosystem functioning?

© ReadingDuck.com