

Name _____

Spotting the Signs: Identifying Potential Bullies

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Share a personal experience or observation related to bullying behavior. Discuss how recognizing signs of bullying could have been helpful in that situation.

2. Imagine you are a student leader in your school, and you need to raise awareness about bullying. Create a plan outlining the steps you would take to educate your peers about recognizing signs of bullying and taking action against it.

3. Reflect on the role of schools, parents, and communities in addressing bullying behavior. How can these stakeholders work together to create a safer environment for everyone?

4. In your opinion, what strategies can individuals use to encourage bullies to change their behavior and become more empathetic and understanding? Provide examples of these strategies and their potential impact.

