

Name _____

Power Shift

Short Answer Key

1. They believed they should decide their own laws, including keeping slavery.
2. Southern states thought Lincoln would end slavery, so they seceded from the Union.
3. It made new laws (amendments) to give equal rights to all citizens.
4. They ended slavery, gave citizenship to African Americans, and allowed African American men to vote.
5. Some people believe states should have more control, while others think the federal government should have the final say.

