

Name _____

Power Struggle

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who wanted a strong central government?
  - a) Federalists
  - b) Anti-Federalists
  - c) Farmers
  - d) Britain

2. Why did the Anti-Federalists worry about the Constitution?
  - a) They thought states would have too much power
  - b) They wanted to get rid of Congress
  - c) They feared the national government would become too powerful
  - d) They did not want to be independent from Britain

3. How did the Bill of Rights help resolve the debate?
  - a) It gave more power to the president
  - b) It allowed states to leave the country
  - c) It ended the government
  - d) It promised protections for individual and state rights

4. What event was partly caused by states' rights debates?
  - a) The Civil War
  - b) The Boston Tea Party
  - c) The Revolutionary War
  - d) The War of 1812

5. How does the states' rights debate affect modern politics?
  - a) It ended after the Civil War
  - b) People still debate what powers belong to states versus the national government
  - c) States no longer have any power
  - d) The president decides all state laws

