

Name _____

Power Struggles

Short Answer Key

1. To create a stronger government that balanced power between branches.
2. Legislative (makes laws), Executive (enforces laws), Judicial (interprets laws).
3. When Congress passes a law, the President can veto it, but Congress can override the veto.
4. They worried that the President would become too powerful, like a king.
5. A law is unconstitutional if it goes against the U.S. Constitution and is not allowed.

