

Name _____

Power in Check

Short Answer Key

1. The Supreme Court can rule that the President's actions are unconstitutional.
2. Because the President must follow the law like everyone else.
3. It required the President to ask Congress before sending troops into battle for a long time.
4. Judicial review is the Supreme Court's power to decide if a law is unconstitutional. It makes sure all laws follow the Constitution.
5. To make sure no branch becomes too powerful and to keep the government fair.

