

Name _____

Power in Check

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. If the President had unlimited power, they could make unfair laws or decisions without anyone stopping them.
2. Congress represents the people, so they should decide if the country goes to war.
3. In a school, teachers, principals, and students work together to make fair rules.
4. They prevent leaders from making unfair laws and ensure that all government actions follow the Constitution.

