

Name _____

The Power of Friendship

Short Answer Key

1. Elements of the tapestry of friendship include trust, laughter, and shared secrets.
2. The power of friendship is based on bonds, memories, and love.
3. Friends are described as mirrors because they reflect our true selves, showing us who we are.
4. The poem suggests that friends help us by being anchors that keep us grounded and wings that help us soar, offering support and encouragement.
5. "The love that knows no boundaries" means that the love between friends is limitless and unconditional, not restricted by any limits or conditions.

