The Great Class President Race

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Max's campaign promise to make it snow ice cream reflected his love of science and sense of humor.
2. One of the campaign events organized by Alex was a mini water balloon fight during recess where students had a blast splashing each other with colorful water balloons.
3. The outrageous promises were exciting and fun, adding a sense of adventure to the election, which made the students more interested in them.
4. Max wanted to convey that, even though he couldn't fulfill his wild promise, he was committed to making the school year memorable and enjoyable by working together with the students.
