

Name _____

The Presidential Showdown

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think the nation became divided along ideological lines during the election?
2. What values and issues do you think were most important to the voters in this election?
3. Can you think of any potential consequences or challenges that might arise from the election results?
4. How do you think the nation can heal and come together after such a divisive election?

